RHPA Means the Regulated Health Professions Act, 1991.

Supporting Documentation Means official records provided by a court, tribunal, educational institution, licensing or regulating body, other government sanctioned organization, religious leader, or Regulated Health Professional qualified to make an assessment or diagnosis, which provides details surrounding the outcome of an event or the need for deferral.

General

Guiding Legislation All aspects of this policy will be managed in accordance with the RHPA, the Act, the Registration Regulation, the Program and Examination Policies of the College.

Authority Pursuant to paragraph 1(i)B of section 5(1) of the Registration Regulation, the Council has the authority to approve the registration examinations, and the body that would administer the examinations on its behalf, that a person must successfully complete to qualify for registration with the College.

Pursuant to paragraph 2 of section 5(1) of the Registration Regulation, the Council has the authority to set or approve the clinical examinations which an applicant must successfully complete to qualify for registration with the College.

Clinical (Practical) Examinations All applicants, except for those deemed to have satisfied subsection 7(1) of the Registration Regulation (labour mobility), must have successfully completed the Clinical (Practical) Examinations as set by the Council and outlined in the Clinical (Practical) Examinations Policy.

Biomedical and Clinical Sciences Examinations All applicants, except for those deemed to have satisfied subsection 7(1) of the Registration Regulation (labour mobility), must also have successfully completed the Biomedical and Clinical Sciences Exams as set by the Council and outlined in the Clinical Sciences and Biomedical Examinations Policy.

Jurisprudence Examination All applicants must have successfully completed the Jurisprudence examination as set by the Council.

Examination Attempts Number of permitted attempts are handled in accordance with the program policies for each examination noted herein, except for the Jurisprudence examination, which a candidate can retake until they have attained a passing grade.

A candidate who has failed an examination for a second time will be required to complete additional education or training as determined by a panel of the Registration Committee, in order to qualify to attempt the examination for a third time.

Any additional training or education will be determined in accordance with the refresher programs, additional education, and training provisions of the Registration Policy.

Accommodations	General	Requests for accommodation(s) are managed in accordance with the College's Examination Accommodations Policy.
Withdrawals from College Examinations	Requests	Any candidate who is registered for an examination may seek to withdraw their exam registration.
	Timing	Requests to withdraw from an examination must be received prior to the close of exam registration. Requests received after this period cannot be considered; however, candidates unable to attend an examination may seek a deferral of the entire examination under this policy.
	Fees	A candidate seeking to withdraw from an examination shall be charged the administrative fee to cover the administrative costs associated with refund transactions. Following receipt of the administrative fee, the full examination fee is reimbursed to the candidate.
Deferrals of College Examinations	Requests	Any candidate who is registered for an examination, except for the Jurisprudence examination, which is offered on a continuous basis may seek a deferral, due to illness, injury or emergency which prevents their attendance at an examination.
	Notification	Candidates must notify the College immediately, by telephone or by email, to advise of being unable to attend the examination, and the reason. Failure to notify the College will result in a refusal of a candidate's deferral request.
	Supporting Documentation	Deferral requests must be submitted to the College within two weeks of the original notification date, accompanied by a letter from a Regulated Health Professional or other supporting documentation verifying the circumstances for the missed examination.  Failure to submit the required documentation and fee will result in the forfeiture of the examination fee.
	Review	The CEO and/or their delegate will review all deferral requests on an individual basis. Deferrals are granted based on the validity of the illness, injury or emergency which prevented the candidate's attendance at an examination.
	Emergency or Illness During an Examination	Candidates who become ill or encounter an emergency which necessitates leaving an examination in session must notify College staff immediately and return all examination materials. A note from a Regulated Health Professional substantiating the illness, or other supporting documentation verifying the circumstances for leaving the exam must be obtained, dated within twenty-four hours of the time the candidate left the examination site, and submitted to the College within one week of the examination date.

Results will be issued for any completed examinations. Examinations, which were not completed due to a substantiated illness or emergency, will not be counted as an examination attempt. Candidates will be provided with an opportunity to sit the examination(s) that they were unable to complete at the next regularly scheduled examination session.

Fees

A candidate granted a deferral shall be charged the administrative fee for review of the deferral request. Examination fees paid by the candidate shall not be refunded; however, a credit for the amount paid will be applied to the next regular sitting of the examination by the candidate. If the candidate does not sit the next regularly scheduled sitting of the examination, the examination fee paid will be forfeited.

Exam Appeals	General	Examination appeals are handled in accordance with the Examination Appeals Policy.
Rules of Conduct for Examinations Set by the College	General	All candidates are required to comply with the Examination Rules of Conduct as established by the CEO.
		Examination invigilators, examiners, and staff of the College present at the examinations are responsible for enforcing the Rules of Conduct.
	Allegations of Violation	The examination proctors, examiners or College staff will document any alleged examination violations. Each is responsible for recording and reporting all observations of potential violations to the College.
		Indications that an examination violation may be occurring during the examination period may result in immediate removal of the candidate from the examination at the discretion of the CEO.
	Notification and Response	The candidate shall be informed in writing of the nature of the allegation and be provided with a reasonable opportunity to respond to the allegation. This response may be submitted as a formal letter or involve a meeting between the CEO, and/or their delegate, the candidate, and, if the candidate requests in advance, another party chosen by the candidate to act as the candidate's advisor.
		If the candidate fails to provide a response to the allegation in the allotted time frame or to participate in the process, the CEO may proceed to make a determination.
	Review Process	The CEO will review all pertinent information provided in relation to the alleged examination violation along with the candidate's response. A determination will then be made as to whether sufficient information exists to support the allegation.

Notification of the CEO's finding regarding the alleged examination violation will be provided to the candidate in writing and is appealable to the Examination Appeals Committee.

Consequences

A finding that an examination violation has occurred will result in a failure of the examination, which shall be recorded as one of a total of three attempts to successfully complete the examination.

If evidence is found of a breach in the security of the examination materials before the administration of an examination, and such evidence suggests that the behaviour is organized and/or may involve a number of candidates, the College reserves the right to cancel the examination session.

If evidence is found of a breach in the security of examination materials after the administration of an examination, and such evidence suggests that the behaviour was organized and/or may have involved a number of candidates, the College reserves the right to disqualify the exam results of some or all candidates.

The College may also take special measures at any subsequent examination to prevent the reoccurrence of the violation at the expense of any candidates involved in the security breach, seek damages from any persons involved in a security breach, and/or take any other action appropriate in the circumstances.

Passing Requirements	General	Passing thresholds for each examination are managed in accordance with the College's Program and Examinations Policies for Clinical (Practical) Examinations, Clinical Sciences and Biomedical Examinations, IVIT Examination, and the Prescribing and Therapeutics Exam.
Examiners for College Examinations	General	Examiners are Registrants of the College in good standing, who meet the criteria established by this policy.
	General Examiner Criteria	A Registrant is eligible for selection as an examiner if, on the date of application and throughout each applicable examination session for which they are selected to participate, the Registrant: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>holds a General Certificate of Registration with the College with no terms, conditions or limitations on their certificate of registration.</li> <li>has actively practiced naturopathy for at least two years.</li> <li>has a strong working knowledge of the modality they wish to examine in.</li> <li>is not in default of payment of any fees set out in the by-laws or any fine or order for costs to the College imposed by a College committee or court of law.</li> </ul> discretion of the CEO and/or their delegate.

Conflicts of Interest

For the purposes of this policy, a conflict of interest is defined as outlined in section 16 of the by-laws. Without limiting the definition, a real or perceived conflict of interest between an examiner and candidate exists when a prior personal or professional relationship exists between the examiner and candidate.

Prior to the examination schedule for each examination being finalized, examiners will be asked to review the names of all candidates and shall declare any conflict of interest.

The CEO and/or their delegate may perceive a conflict of interest between an examiner and a candidate, due to professional or personal affiliation, or a prior examination attempt, for each examination session to ensure a fair and impartial process.

The CEO and/or their delegate shall subsequently adjust the examiner schedule or, if necessary, remove an examiner from the schedule to resolve any conflicts.

Examiner Disqualification

A Registrant will be discharged as an examiner if they:

- breach one of the qualifications required to become an examiner as outlined in this policy.
- breach confidentiality of any information learned through participation in the administration of the College's examinations.
- fail to properly declare a real or perceived conflict of interest.
- fail to attend an examination for which they are scheduled without providing sufficient notice.
- is advised as such by the CEO.
