Certificate of Authorization Renewal Guide

As outlined in section 85.8 of the Health Professions Procedural Code (the Code), which is Schedule 2 of the Regulated Health Professions Act, 1991 (RHPA), the Business Corporations Act, R.S.O. 1990, c.B16 (BCA) and Ontario Regulation 39/02 (the Regulation) made under the RHPA, regulated health professionals are permitted to incorporate for the purpose of practising a health profession, providing they obtain certificates of authorization from their respective health profession Colleges.¹

Certificates of authorization are valid for one year from the date of certificate issuance and must be renewed with the College of Naturopaths of Ontario (the College) annually. Renewal involves the submission of an online application form, along with specific documentation and payment of a renewal fee.

Should you not wish to maintain your certificate of authorization for the professional corporation, please refer to the Dissolving a Professional Corporation section of this handbook.

Required Documents and Fees

To renew your certificate of authorization, the following items must be provided to the College at least 30 days prior to the expiry date noted on your PC's certificate of authorization:

1. A completed online application.
2. Payment of the PC renewal fee, as per Schedule 3 to the by-laws.
3. A Declaration, completed by a Director of the corporation and signed no more than 15 days before the renewal application is submitted.
4. A copy of a corporation profile report issued by the Ministry of Public and Business Service Delivery and Procurement \(MPBSDP\) or by a service provider which is under contract with the MPBSDP that is dated not more than 30 days before the renewal application is submitted.
5. A copy of every certificate of the corporation that has been endorsed under the Business Corporations Act as of the date this application is submitted (if applicable).
6. If changes have been made to the Articles of Incorporation or the PC name, a copy of the amended Articles of Incorporation (change to the articles) or the Certificate of Amendment (PC name change) issued by the MPBSDP.

Ceasing a Professional Corporation

Dissolving a Professional Corporation

Registrants holding a certificate of authorization who no longer wish to practise through their PC may seek to dissolve their corporation through the Ministry of Public and Business Service Delivery and Procurement \(MPBSDP\).

The dissolution process typically takes anywhere from 30 to 90 days. If seeking to dissolve your PC, it's recommended that you seek to complete the process prior to the expiry of your certificate of authorization.

If seeking to resign your certificate of registration to practise naturopathy in Ontario, your PC must be dissolved before the resignation can be processed.

Failing to Renew a Certificate of Authorization

Registrants that fail to renew (or dissolve) their certificate of authorization by the expiry date on their certificate will receive a Notice of Intent to Revoke the PC with 65 days to comply with renewal requirements (or dissolve their PC) before the certificate of authorization is revoked.

If revoked and wishing to continue to practise naturopathy through a PC, you will be required to submit a new application, which includes the need to file new documentation, pay the application fee and issuance fee to obtain a new certificate of authorization. Please refer to information on Revocation of Certificate under Appendix II of this handbook.
