Exam Transition Policy (amended April 2020)—As a result of COVID-19 related exam cancellations and postponements, waylaying applicants in completing entry-to-practise requirements, the deadline by which the College was set to sunset recognition of the Naturopathic Physicians Licensing Examination (NPLEX) Part 1 as an entry-to-practise examination in Ontario was extended, from November 15, 2020 to May 15, 2021.

g. Resources for applicants

i) Describe any improvements/changes implemented in the last year.

In December 2020, a new version of the College website (www.collegeofnaturopaths.on.ca) was launched, featuring a user-friendly design, plain language, streamlined content and renamed menu options to better assist Registrants, applicants (both accredited program and non-accredited program trained) and the public in navigating College resources.

Examination handbooks were revised to incorporate new COVID-19 protocol for in-person examinations to mitigate the risk of transmission at exam sessions. Additionally, as a result of COVID-19 and associated test center closures, two of the College's entry-to-practise examinations were temporarily moved to an online format. To support this delivery method, an Online Ontario Clinical Sciences Exam Guide and an Online Ontario Biomedical Exam Guide were created to stipulate software, hardware and physical room set-up requirements and provide information about processes and procedures specific to the online administrations.

In April 2020, an Applying for Registration During the COVID-19 Pandemic guidance document was made available to applicants seeking registration, to outline temporary, alternative options for those unable to obtain certain registration documents as a result of COVID-19 related closures.

ii) Describe the impact of the improvements/changes on applicants

All resource additions and amendments noted above enhance procedural transparency, by providing applicants with clear and concise information about examination and registration requirements. The additional COVID-19 Guidance Document also ensures eligible applicants are provided with fair opportunity to complete their application for registration in a timely manner.

- iii) Describe the impact of the improvements/changes on your organization

Additional exam resources reduce ambiguity and minimize the potential for exam violations, or appeals to occur on grounds of procedural irregularity.

The COVID-19 Guidance document for applicants allows the College to maintain procedural fairness in the application for registration process, while still ensuring the mandate of public protection is met.
