

Updates to the Ontario IVIT Exam

On July 26, 2023, the Council of the College approved minor changes to the IVIT examination blueprint. The goal is to provide increased flexibility to how and where the exam is administered while still maintaining the rigour of assessment to ensure those deemed to meet the Standard of Practice for IVIT have the knowledge, skill and judgment to do so safely and competently.

Identifying the lines governing Sexual Abuse in Health Care

Although the College has only seen a small number of sexual abuse allegations of patients in the past, we want to bring this sensitive topic to light. So that we can have an open and forthright discussion about sexual abuse and the rules set out in the legislation, your protection and your risks.

Don't miss this important REP!

~~November 10, 2023~~ This session has been moved from November to December 4!

ICW - The Role of the College vs. the OAND

The next session of our In Conversation With series will take place on November 22 with a focus on understanding the roles of the College and the Ontario Association of Naturopathic Doctors (OAND). How can our two organizations work together? How can working together also serve the public interest? How can we impact the future of the profession in Ontario?

Register now and secure your spot to hear from and pose questions directly to the leadership of both organizations in person!
