Voice of the Patient

The College has released the results of its Voice of the Patient (VoP) survey, which gathers insights from patients and former patients about their experiences with naturopathic doctors. These findings will drive CoNO's risk-based regulation efforts and help create more patient-focused information.

By-law Amendments – Election of Council

Have your say on Council Elections! The College is consulting on proposed by-law amendments that would replace seven electoral districts with a single province-wide district. Candidates would be selected through a process reviewed by the Governance Committee, focusing on competencies, diversity gaps, and Council priorities. The consultation is open until November 26, 2025.

By-law Amendments – Information to be Provided and Fees

The College is running a consultation on proposed by-law amendments focused on registrant information and fees. Changes include a $250 registration fee increase to support financial sustainability and build reserves, along with a cost-recovery model for resource-intensive regulatory cases. The consultation is open until November 26, 2025.
