REP: Understanding the New CE Reporting Process through Alinity

Staying on top of Continuing Education (CE) reporting is essential to maintaining your registration. Join us on Monday, July 20, 2026, from 12:00 p.m. to 1:00 p.m. ET for an overview of the updated CE reporting process in Alinity, covering reporting requirements, eligible activities, and common submission errors. This session qualifies for 1 Category A (Jurisprudence) CE. Come prepared with your questions – a live Q&A session will follow the presentation.

Inspections Program Spotlight — What Inspectors Look For

If you operate an Intravenous Infusion Therapy (IVIT) premises or are thinking of starting one, knowing what inspectors look for can help you stay compliant. Inspectors assess areas such as physical environment, infection prevention and control (IPAC) measures, sterile compounding, and documentation practices. Each inspection results in a pass, pass with conditions, or fail outcome. Visit the Inspection Program page for full details, and watch our past REP session recording, IVIT Premises: Inspections and Regulatory Requirements, to stay informed.

Become an Examiner for the College

The College is seeking Examiners for its Ontario Clinical (Practical) Examinations, conducted in July and October. Examiners play a key role in evaluating candidates and ensuring qualified individuals enter practice – a meaningful contribution to public protection. Click here to Apply. Examiners receive a virtual training session and are compensated per the College's Per Diem Policy. For additional information, contact us at exams@collegeofnaturopaths.on.ca.

What Happens When a Complaint Is Filed?

As a naturopathic doctor, understanding the complaints process, including steps the College is required to take with each complaint and possible outcomes, will assist you in responding if a complaint is ever filed against you. Visit the Complaints for NDs page to understand the process and how to prepare and/or register to watch a recording of our past REP session on "Complaints and Investigations: Converting Retreat into Advance."
